

Moses at the Red Sea

Moses at the Red Sea

Moses' people were slaves. When he led them to freedom, Pharaoh chased them to bring them back. Heavenly Father made the Red Sea divide so Moses and his people could cross. When Pharaoh's army tried to follow them, the water went back together and drowned Pharaoh's army. Moses and his people were safe and free.

Daniel in the Lions' Den

Daniel was a leader. Other leaders were jealous, so they made the king promise to throw into the lions' den anyone who prayed to Heavenly Father. Daniel prayed to Him and was thrown into the lions' den. But Heavenly Father sent an angel, who kept the lions from hurting Daniel.

Daniel in the Lions' Den

Lehi Goes to the Promised Land

Most of the people in Jerusalem were wicked. When Lehi told them to repent, they threatened to kill him. Heavenly Father told Lehi to leave Jerusalem. Lehi took his family and a few other people and was guided across the ocean to the land that Heavenly Father had promised would be a good land to live in.

"Scripture-Story Peekaboo Book,"
Friend, Jan. 1998, 28

David Defeats Goliath

David's brothers were in an army fighting the army of Goliath. Goliath was a giant. If any man could kill him, his army promised to stop fighting. Even though David was only a young boy, with Heavenly Father's help, he killed Goliath, and Goliath's army ran away.

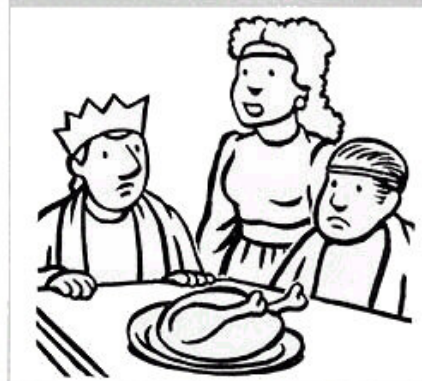

Lehi Goes to the Promised Land

Esther Gives a Banquet

The king didn't know that Esther, the queen, was a Jew. Haman had tricked the king into commanding that all the Jews be killed. Esther and her people fasted and asked Heavenly Father for help; then she gave a banquet for the king and Haman. At the banquet, she told the king the truth. The king had Haman put to death, and the Jews were saved.

David Defeats Goliath

Esther Gives a Banquet

Moses at the Red Sea

Moses' people were slaves. When he led them to freedom, Pharaoh chased them to bring them back. Heavenly Father made the Red Sea divide so Moses and his people could cross. When Pharaoh's army tried to follow them, the water went back together and drowned Pharaoh's army. Moses and his people were safe and free.

Daniel in the Lions' Den

Daniel was a leader. Other leaders were jealous, so they made the king promise to throw into the lions' den anyone who prayed to Heavenly Father. Daniel prayed to Him and was thrown into the lions' den. But Heavenly Father sent an angel, who kept the lions from hurting Daniel.

Lehi Goes to the Promised Land

Most of the people in Jerusalem were wicked. When Lehi told them to repent, they threatened to kill him. Heavenly Father told Lehi to leave Jerusalem. Lehi took his family and a few other people and was guided across the ocean to the land that Heavenly Father had promised would be a good land to live in.

David Defeats Goliath

David's brothers were in an army fighting the army of Goliath. Goliath was a giant. If any man could kill him, his army promised to stop fighting. Even though David was only a young boy, with Heavenly Father's help, he killed Goliath, and Goliath's army ran away.

Esther Gives a Banquet

The king didn't know that Esther, the queen, was a Jew. Haman had tricked the king into commanding that all the Jews be killed. Esther and her people fasted and asked Heavenly Father for help; then she gave a banquet for the king and Haman. At the banquet, she told the king the truth. The king had Haman put to death, and the Jews were saved.

“Scripture-Story Peekaboo Book,” Friend, Jan. 1998, 28