New Testament Jeopardy

1. Divide the class into two or more equal teams.
2. The colored points cards are posted in front of the teams. Questions are correlated to the colored points cards. The questions are derived from lessons in the Primary 7 (New Testament) teaching book, . The point value does not necessarily represent the difficulty of the questions.
3. Teams will take turns selecting colored points cards. If the team cannot answer the question, either the question may given to a different team to earn the points; or the points can become a negative on the playing team's score.
4. Each team will keep track of points, according to the questions they select.
5. Each class member will receive a prize if they participate, and with the help of the other team(s), complete the Jeopardy board by removing the colored points cards and answering all of the questions. Points will be kept, for the sake of competition, but everyone will be a winner.
