

Julie B. Beck said "Latter-day Saint women must be strong and immovable in their faith. They can and should excel in living and sharing their testimonies of the Lord Jesus Christ and His restored gospel. We do this as we:

- * Are worthy and worship in His temples.
- * Study His doctrine in the scriptures and the words of prophets.
- * Qualify for, recognize, and follow the Holy Ghost.
- * Share and defend His gospel.
