

General Conference—No Ordinary Blessing

What a marvelous privilege it is to hear God's messages for each of us during general conference! Let us prepare well for this great blessing of divine guidance delivered by His chosen servants. For this is no ordinary blessing.

- Members of the Church are entitled to personal revelation as they listen to and study the inspired words spoken at general conference.
- Don't discount a message merely because it sounds familiar.
- The words spoken at general conference should be a compass that points the way for us during the coming months.

General Conference—No Ordinary Blessing

What a marvelous privilege it is to hear God's messages for each of us during general conference! Let us prepare well for this great blessing of divine guidance delivered by His chosen servants. For this is no ordinary blessing.

- Members of the Church are entitled to personal revelation as they listen to and study the inspired words spoken at general conference.
- Don't discount a message merely because it sounds familiar.
- The words spoken at general conference should be a compass that points the way for us during the coming months.

