

*"Our spirits long for us to remember the truth about who we are,
because the way we see ourselves—or our sense of identity—affects
everything we do."*

—Sheri Dew